

Name: _____

Mixed Addition and Subtraction Word Problems

13) There were 7 kittens playing. 4 kittens went to sleep. How many kittens are still playing?

= _____

14) There were 4 yellow flowers and 3 blue flowers. How many flowers were there in total?

= _____

15) Sophia had 10 seashells. She gave 6 seashells to her brother. How many seashells does she have left?

= _____

16) There were 8 students in the classroom. 1 student was absent. How many students were present?

= _____

17) Jake had 5 balloons. He bought 2 more balloons at the store. How many balloons does he have now?

= _____

18) There were 6 rabbits in the garden. 3 more rabbits joined them. How many rabbits are there now?

= _____

