

Simple Word Problems on Subtracting 10

1) Suppose, Lisa had 50 candies. She gave away 10. How many candies does she have left?

Ans: 40

2) Suppose, A store had 80 notebooks. If 10 were sold, how many notebooks are still in the store?

Ans:

3) Suppose, There were 30 balloons at the party. If 10 popped, how many balloons are still good?

Ans:

4) Suppose, Tim had 60 marbles. He lost 10 while playing. How many marbles does Tim have now?

Ans:

5) Suppose, In a classroom, there were 70 pencils. If 10 were used, how many pencils are left?

Ans:

6) Suppose, Sarah had 100 stickers. She shared 10 with her friends. How many stickers does Sarah have now?

Ans:

