

Simple Word Problems on Subtracting 10

1) Suppose, In a jar, there were 20 jellybeans. If 10 were eaten, how many jellybeans are still in the jar?

Ans:

2) Suppose, There were 75 students in a school assembly. If 10 students left early, how many students are still in the assembly?

Ans:

3) Suppose, Tom had 45 comic books. He sold 10 of them. How many comic books does Tom have now?

Ans:

4) Suppose, A baker baked 73 cookies. If 10 were burnt and had to be thrown away, how many cookies are still good?

Ans:

5) Suppose, There were 44 tickets for a concert. If 10 tickets were unsold, how many people attended the concert?

Ans:

6) Suppose, Rachel had 55 colored pencils. She lost 10 of them. How many colored pencils does Rachel have now?

Ans:

